

The Fifth Sunday of Easter

Cathedral Eucharist

Sunday 28 April 2024
10.30

Welcome to Sheffield Cathedral

The Cathedral is a community gathered round Christ in prayer, committed to practical caring and living well with God. Its doors are open every day, and our work and worship continue through the year.

The Cathedral clergy are pleased to make arrangements for individual conversations with people, or to hear confessions. Please ring the Canon in Residence mobile (07534 653 333) and we will ensure that a priest will contact you within 24 hours. The notes to kneel, sit, and stand are only suggestions: please feel able to adopt whatever posture you wish.

Please take your service booklet away with you.

Livestreaming

This service will be livestreamed. If you do not wish to appear on the livestream, please sit in the seats in the south aisle. Signs will direct you to these seats.

Music during the service

At this service the choir will sing the Missa ad Praesepe by George Malcolm (1917-1997). The anthem is Ich bin ein rechter Weinstock by Heinrich Schütz (1585-1672).

Giving to Sheffield Cathedral

The ministry at Sheffield Cathedral is only possible because of the generous support we receive from the congregation who give to the Cathedral in a variety of ways and for which we are very grateful. A collection will be taken during the offertory hymn to support the ministry of the Cathedral. Please use the gift aid envelopes provided if you are a UK tax payer. For more information please see the section on giving towards the back of the order of service.

Practicalities, accessibility and sustainability

You are kindly requested to refrain from making any audio or visual recording of any part of this service without the written permission of the Dean of Sheffield. This enables us to ensure that we are compliant with the General Data Protection Regulation.

Our service sheet is printed on paper which comes from sustainable forests.

Toilets, including accessible provision (using a RADAR key), are situated through the 1554 Coffee Shop, and on the left.

An induction loop is available for those who are hard of hearing. Please turn your hearing aid to the 'T' setting.

Large print copies of this booklet are available. Please ask the Stewards.

The Gathering

Please stand to sing as the procession enters:

Lobe Den Herren

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation;
O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation:
Come ye who hear,
Brothers and sisters draw near,
Praise him in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
Shelters thee under his wings, yea, so gently sustaineth:
Hast thou not seen
All that is needful hath been Granted in what he ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work, and defend thee;
Surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend thee;
Ponder anew
All the Almighty can do,
He who with love doth befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord, who, when tempests their warfare are waging,
Who, when the elements madly around thee are raging,
Biddeth them cease,
Turneth their fury to peace,
Whirlwinds and waters assuaging.

Praise to the Lord, who when darkness of sin is abounding,
Who, when the godless do triumph, all virtue confounding, Sheddeth his light,
Chaseth the horrors of night,
Saints with his mercy surrounding.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath come now with praises before him!
Let the Amen
Sound from his people again:
Gladly for ay we adore him.

who died for us,
forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life

The New Testament Reading: Acts 8. 26 - end

Reader A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, 'Get up and go towards the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.' (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, 'Go over to this chariot and join it.' So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, 'Do you understand what you are reading?' He replied, 'How can I, unless someone guides me?' And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this:

'Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth.
In his humiliation justice was denied him.
Who can describe his generation?
For his life is taken away from the earth.'

The eunuch asked Philip, 'About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?' Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, 'Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?' He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Reader Let us wait upon the Lord;
All in whose word is our hope.

We keep silence together.

Please stand and turn to face the book of the Gospels.

The Holy Gospel: John 15. 1 - 8

Choir Alleluia! Your words, O Lord, are spirit and life.
Alleluia! Open our hearts to your word.

All Alleluia! Your words, O Lord, are spirit and life.
Alleluia! Open our hearts to your word.

Rejoice and sing, all the earth, for the night is gone!
Our God has raised us up from death in Christ Jesus, the Son.

All Alleluia! Your words, O Lord, are spirit and life.
Alleluia! Open our hearts to your word.

Bernadette Farrell

Deacon The Lord be with you
All And also with you.

Deacon Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
All Glory to you, O Lord.

Deacon 'I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine-grower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.

Deacon This is the Gospel of the Lord.
All Praise to you, O Christ.

Please sit.

The Sermon

The Very Revd Abi Thompson
Dean of Sheffield

Please stand.

The Nicene Creed

President Let us declare our faith in God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Please kneel or sit.

The Prayers of Intercession

The Deacon introduces the prayers, after each petition:

Intercessor Lord of life,
All In your mercy hear us

Intercessor Merciful Father,
All accept these prayers for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Please stand.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

'Peace be with you.'
Then were they glad when they saw the Lord. Alleluia.

John 20.19, 20

All The peace of the Lord be always with you.
and also with you.

Deacon Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

Please remain standing to sing, during which the altar is set with the gifts of bread and wine. All are welcome to make a gift to support the ministry of the Cathedral. Please use the gift aid envelopes provided if you are a UK tax payer and place your gift in the baskets when they are offered by the stewards.

Converse

What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!
Oh, what peace we often forfeit,
Oh, what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer!

Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Are we weak and heavy-laden,
 Cumbered with a load of care?
 Precious Savior, still our refuge-
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.
 Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
 Take it to the Lord in prayer;
 In His arms He'll take and shield thee,
 Thou wilt find a solace there.

Joseph Medicott Scriven, 1819-1886

The Eucharistic Prayer

President
All

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

President
All

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

President
All

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

President

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give you thanks, almighty and eternal Father, and on this day of our redemption to celebrate with joyful hearts the memory of your wonderful works.

For by the mystery of his passion
 Jesus Christ, your risen Son, has conquered the powers of death and hell and restored in men and women the image of your glory.
 He has placed them once more in paradise and opened to them the gate of life eternal.

And so, in the joy of this Passover, earth and heaven resound with gladness, while angels and archangels and the powers of all creation sing for ever the hymn of your glory:

Choir

Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth:
 pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua.
 Hosanna in excelsis.

*Holy, holy, holy,
 Lord God of hosts;
 heaven and earth are full of your glory.
 Hosanna in the highest.*

Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini.
 Hosanna in excelsis.

*Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Hosanna in the highest.*

President We praise and bless you, loving Father, through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit, that broken bread and wine outpoured may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.
He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

President When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross.
Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory.

Deacon Jesus Christ is Lord:
All Lord, by your cross and resurrection
you have set us free.
You are the Saviour of the world.

President Lord of all life, help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Saint Peter, Saint Paul and all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father,
for ever and ever

All Amen.

We keep silence. Please kneel or sit.

The Lord's Prayer

President Rejoicing in God's new creation, let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us:

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

President Jesus says, I am the bread of life, whoever eats of this bread will live for ever.

All Lord, our hearts hunger for you;
give us this bread always.

The Giving of Communion

President Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

All Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Choir Agnus Dei,
qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis. *Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.*

Agnus Dei,
qui tollis peccata mundi,
dona nobis pacem. *Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
grant us peace.*

We welcome all Christians, including baptized children of any age, to receive Holy Communion at Sheffield Cathedral. Gluten free wafers are available, please ask the priest as you approach to receive Holy Communion.

If you do not wish to receive Holy Communion, you are invited to come forward for a blessing. If you wish to receive a blessing, please bring this booklet with you and hold it so that it can be clearly seen by the ministers

During communion the choir sing:

Ich bin ein rechter Weinstock, mein Vater ein Weingärtner.
Eine jeglichen Reben an mir, der nicht Frucht bringet, wird er wegnehmen, und einen jeglichen, der da Frucht bringet,
wird er reinigen,
dass er mehr Frucht bringe.

*I am the true vine, my Father is the wine-gardener.
Every branch in me that beareth not fruit
he taketh away:
and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it,
that it may bring forth more fruit.*

Ich bin der Weinstock, ihr seid die Reben.
Bleibet in mir und ich in euch.
Gleich wie der Reben kann keine Frucht bringen von ihm selber, er bleibe denn am Weinstock, also auch ihr nicht, ihr bleibet denn in mir.

*I am the vine, ye are the branches:
Abide in me, and I in you.
As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself,
except it abide in the vine;
no more can ye, except ye abide in me.*

Words: John 15:1-2, 5a & 4
Music: Heinrich Schütz (1585-1672)

St. Andrews

Jesus calls us! O'er the tumult
Of our life's wild restless sea
Day by day his voice is sounding, Saying, 'Christian follow me':

As of old Saint Andrew heard it
By the Galilean lake, Turned from home and toil and kindred,
Leaving all for his dear sake.

Jesus calls us from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store,
From each idol that would keep us,
Saying, 'Christian, love me more'.

In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still he calls, in cares and pleasures,
'Christian, love me more than these'.

Jesus calls us! By thy mercies, Saviour, may we hear thy call,
Give our hearts to thy obedience,
Serve and love thee best of all.

Schools Singing Update

The 400th anniversary of the Cutler's Company took place on Tuesday evening. As guests arrived, video footage played, giving a fly-on-the-wall look into our classroom teaching. Children were encountering things for the first time - conducting in 2, 3 and 4, deciphering sheet music, accessing a new register, or perhaps learning a new word or language through music. As they did so, bright eyes and wide eyes conveyed fulfilment. Our musical apprentices were learning their trade – uniting them with many thousands in Sheffield over the last four centuries who have found dignity and satisfaction in their craft. We are asking the congregation for prayer and financial support if possible. For further information, contact music@sheffield-cathedral.org.uk. In order to give, you can either scan the QR code, or go on the website <https://www.stewardship.org.uk/pages/sheffieldcathedralSSP> or donate directly into the perspex box near the entrance.

Organ Recitals, Sundays at 17.15 are taking a short break and will restart again on 5 May with Max Elliot.

These weekly drop-in classes will be run by Beth who, prior to running Sheffield and North Derbyshire's Rhythm Time Classes, was a professional singer and Head of Music at a secondary school. Sheffield Cathedral Chapter and all who serve here seek to promote the wholeness of every person within God's loving purpose for us all. We want to make this a safe place for every member of the church community, whatever their age. We understand that it is the responsibility of each one of us to protect children, young people and adults from physical, emotional and sexual abuse, and from neglect. Together we can build a community where everyone can flourish.

If you would like some help working out the right place to go with a safeguarding concern, you can speak to the Cathedral Safeguarding Advocate, Angela Rees, who is available to chat most Sunday mornings.
